

NEW ZEALAND PICTURE BOOK · AGES 0-11

A dog. A nose. And a very empty tummy.

A fun rhyming picture book about Jed, a dog with an enormous appetite. When a broken fence gives him freedom to roam, his powerful nose leads him on a food-hunting adventure that may land him in trouble.

Will this naughty dog learn how to behave?

SCAN TO VISIT
JEDTHEDOG.COM

Jed, the Food Hunting Dog

Pete Moffatt · illustrated by Mike Howell

$28.00 RRP · 40pp paperback

jedthedog.com

Why children — and grown-ups — love it

A humorous morality tale where good behaviour is rewarded and finally wins out over naughtiness — a delightful read for young animal lovers. Jed is a real staffy cross from Mt Pleasant, Christchurch, with a knack for hunting out food left unattended.

- Rhyme that reads aloud — rhyming couplets keep young readers engaged and support early phonetic reading.
- A dog children know — Jed's endless appetite and mischievous antics land instantly with pet-loving families.
- Illustrated throughout — colourful artwork brings Jed's escapades to life on every spread.

“Outstanding book with superb illustrations which capture the whole thrust of this VERY NAUGHTY DOG! ... It has a lot of adult appeal too ... perfect to be read to quite an age range.”

“I love this book. Jed is cheeky in the food hunting mood!”

YEAR 1 STUDENT

“It even gave me inspiration because I want to make a story like that book.”

YEAR 5/6 STUDENT

How to order

Direct: copypress.co.nz · $28.00 + p&h

Bookshops: CopyPress — books@copypress.co.nz

Libraries: Wheelers · Also: Fishpond

jedthedog.com · hello@jedthedog.com

ISBN 9780473790691 · Printed in NZ · 100% Human Made

SCAN TO VISIT